

Dutrade Zrt. wishes to ensure its sustainable long-term operation by the production, purchase, processing and trade of steel through establishing harmony between customer requirements and ownership expectations.

The fundamental objective of Dutrade Zrt. is to maintain the quality of product, environment and health protection and industrial safety, to ensure energy-efficient operations and continuous improvement.

In the course of its activities the company complies with the effective statutes and the requirements of other regulations and contractual provisions, and enforces its rights. It makes a conscious effort to use tools, instruments, material and intellectual resources representing the best available technology (BAT) at any given time to meet the requirements of zero error, to observe the principles of sustainable development to minimize the use of natural resources.

The operation of the introduced Integrated Management System includes corporate development, manufacturing, trade and other service activities, as well as the use of all machinery and equipment, edifices, structures and facilities found on the sites.

Quality objectives: to provide for the possibility of product re-processing, improve control of the supplied raw and auxiliary materials, widen the choice of products offered, improve trade servicing, technical consultation and develop packaging technology. We implement our objectives and envisaged plans in the framework of projects, with the help of up-to-date quality technologies.

In addition to the uninterrupted improvement of environmental performance, the company assigns high priority to the economical use of natural resources, cutting emission, prevent environment pollution and improve waste management.

Through reducing occupational risks and health hazards, the employees' working conditions are continuously improved. Employees are provided with the appropriate protective devices.

During the performance of the corporate activities and the operation of its equipment, the company pays special attention to the potential accidents and averages.

During operation and maintenance of manufacturing equipments Dutrade pays special attention to improving the energy capacity and reducing energy consumption as much as possible.

Its suppliers and contracted partners performing work on Dutrade Zrt.'s territory are expected to comply with the environmental, safety and energetics standards approved by the company and have certifiable and valid competences.

Its employees' awareness of quality, the environment, health protection, safety and energetics are improved at regular training courses.

It applies an fair business communication, co-operates with its employees, partners, the local population, the authorities and other stake-holders in the interest of operation that is sustainable over the long term.

Dutrade Zrt.'s management and owner is committed and participates proactively and responsibly in the implementation of the provisions of its Integrated Management Policy Statement, ensures the required resources, encourages and expects every employee of the company to identify himself or herself and comply with its provisions.

In order to implement the provisions of our Policy Statement, the company operates an appropriate Integrated Management System compliant with the standards MSZ EN ISO9001:2009, MSZ EN ISO14001:2005, MSZ 28001:2008 and ISO 50001:2011 certified by an independent company.

First edition: Dunaújváros, 12.09.2012

Last amendment: 05.04.2017

.....
Iván Kroó, director